

You need a Food Establishment Permit to sell certain foods.

You don't need a permit to sell:

Whole, uncut fruits or vegetables.

Commercially packaged food that doesn't need refrigeration.

You do need a permit to sell:

Meat, eggs, fish, or dairy.

Food you prepare, like sauce, soup, or stew.

Cut or prepared fruits or vegetables.

You can't sell, even with a permit:

Food you prepare or store at a home.
(Except if you have a Cottage Food Permit.)

Food from a non-commercial source.

Need to apply for a permit? Have questions?

We can help! Contact us at (253) 649-1417 or food@tpchd.org. We have free language services, like document translation and interpreters.

tpchd.org/food

Rev. April 17, 2024